An Invitation to “Listening Sessions” in preparation for Archdiocese of Winnipeg Synod

At Pentecost Archbishop Gagnon announced our first Archdiocesan Synod will take place in stages over the next 2 years, 2016-2018. From September to November we enter the preparatory phase of the Synod called “Listening Sessions” - gatherings where people are invited to voice their views about present needs and future directions for the church in the Archdiocese of Winnipeg.

“Listening” is the key word for these sessions. Archbishop Gagnon will be present at all sessions to hear the hopes and ideas of those present. It is also an occasion for all of us, not only to share our thoughts, but also to listen to one another and, in so doing, to grow in unity and understanding as a community. Finally, in listening to one another, we seek to listen for where and how the Holy Spirit is leading our church.

“Listening Sessions” have been scheduled throughout the Archdiocese - one for each of the 6 deaneries, as well as special sessions for youth, indigenous peoples, and others.

The format of these meetings is quite simple. Participants will be invited to respond to 3 general questions: 1) what you appreciate most about the church; 2) your hope for the church in the future; and 3) what you consider the most important areas for the church to give attention. No special knowledge or training is required - only an honest sharing of how you see things and a readiness to listen to others. Participants can respond either verbally or in written form. A written record will be kept of these responses which will guide the subsequent phases of the Synod process.

Everyone in the Archdiocese is invited to attend one of these sessions. It is hoped that pastors and representatives from all the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese will be present at a listening session. If you are unable to attend the session scheduled for your deanery you can attend the session for another deanery. You can also give a written response to the questions if you are unable to attend a public session. Details will soon be available on the Archdiocesan website: <http://www.archwinnipeg.ca/>. Click on “Synod 2016-2018” on the right side of the page.

The Session for our Deanery is:

- Wednesday, October 19 – Central Winnipeg Deanery at St. Paul the Apostle Parish, Winnipeg beginning at 7:00 p.m.
