Honouring Life in the Catholic Tradition

Facing Death in Changing Times

Thursday, November 22nd at 7:00 p.m.

St. Eustache Church

With cremation rates steadily climbing, interments rapidly declining, and hotels, community centres and hockey rinks quickly becoming the most popular places in which to celebrate and memorialize the beloved dead, many people are feeling confused and overwhelmed when faced with the death of a loved one.

Join us for an interactive presentation on the topic of death – from the current trends within our secular culture to the hope-filled response experienced through the lens of our Christian Catholic faith. Our discussion will also focus on the teachings of the Catholic Church on the treatment of cremated remains.

Our presenter will be Monique Gauthier, from Living Waters Columbarium, located within the St. Gianna Beretta Molla Parish in Winnipeg.

Sutton Spirit Clothing Drive

Helping the homeless of Winnipeg

We are looking for gently used clothing, especially winter gear. Peanut butter, toiletries or cash donations also welcome. Items can be brought to Melissa at the Cartier Senior Citizens Support Committee office located in the Cartier Medical Centre building in Elie. (In support of Agape Table)
