Presentation on Cremation in the Catholic Church

Thursday November 22nd 2018

At a time when the secular world offers 'twenty seven things to do with cremated remains', we can easily be overwhelmed by the many different options presented to us when a loved one dies. These influences have led some of our Catholic faithful to disperse or scatter remains, or keep them at home indefinitely. The teachings of the Church instruct us to treat cremated remains with the same respect as the body, including the manner in which they are revered and the attention given to their transport and final placement. When cremation is chosen, the entire ritual movement of the Order of Christian Funerals should be celebrated. This session will delve into the rituals supporting death, and the consolation of faith made present through the complete celebration of this ritual movement when cremation is chosen.

Our presenter will be Monique Gauthier, Director of Living Waters Columbarium. All are welcome.

"Blue Christmas"

An inter-faith service of remembrance and hope

Thursday, December 4th, 2018 at 7:00 p.m.

At St Eustache Church

Presented by St Eustache Church and Adam's Funeral Services

Christmas is a time for memories and remembering. For some, the memories are of their loved ones who have died, and the pain of their loss is real. For others, the memories of happier times, relocation and poor health cloud this season. We need to remember, and we need the space to acknowledge our sadness and concern; and we need to know we are not alone. For other reasons, we need a special time to be together to receive the words of hope that speak to us in the midst of sorrow. It is time to acknowledge a "Blue Christmas", a time to hear and share prayers, scripture readings and hymns that help us to know that God's presence is for those who mourn, and God's word comes to give light to our darkness.
